Snacks will be available after this presentation.

Sally Ells and Jolene Lust are graduating students from the University of Alberta Environmental Conservation Sciences program. They will be presenting their experiences from down south after studying various aspects of the environment along the Antarctic Peninsula. The ladies were two of 70 students chosen to participate in this university field course offered by Students On Ice, an award winning organization dedicated to taking youth on inspirational learning expeditions to the Arctic and Antarctic. Come join them on Tuesday April 21st at 7pm to hear all about their icy adventures!
